INFORMATION RELEASE

Embezzlement Case Under Investigation

January 20, 2010

Solano County Sheriff's Office

The Solano County Deputy Sheriff's Association recently discovered funds missing from their account and have reported the incident of suspected embezzlement to the Solano County Sheriff, with a specific request that the Sheriff conduct the investigation. The Sheriff has agreed to assist the Deputy Sheriff's Association. The Solano County Deputy Sheriff's Association is a private labor organization representing the labor interests of Deputy Sheriffs, Sergeant-Sheriffs, District Attorney Investigators and Welfare Fraud Investigators.

The investigation of this case has been assigned to an investigator who has no personal, business or financial involvement with the Deputy Sheriff's Association. The investigator reports to, and will submit his findings directly to Sheriff Gary R. Stanton. Once the investigation has been completed the case will be submitted to the Solano County District Attorney's Office for filing consideration.

This case is under active investigation by the Solano County Sheriff's Office. In order to maintain the integrity of the investigation, no further details pertaining to this case will be released by this office.

Inquiries pertaining to the business practices of the Solano County Deputy Sheriff's Association should be directed to (707) 624-5253. A member of their Board of Directors will respond to your inquiry.
