PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NOTICE TO SOLANO COUNTY HOMEOWNERS REGARDING HOMEOWNER'S PROPERTY TAX EMEMPTIONS

September 27, 2004 – Skip Thomson, Solano County Assessor/Recorder, is concerned that some taxpayers are receiving letters from private companies soliciting a fee to file a Homeowner's Exemption on their behalf. Mr. Thomson is alarmed that these companies are charging a fee for a service that is available directly from his office at no charge. The companies making the offer are not affiliated with the Assessor/Recorder's Office.

Mr. Thomson warns eligible taxpayers not to pay a private company a fee to apply for the Homeowner's Exemption. A homeowner's primary place of residence is eligible for this exemption which is available simply by filing the proper form with his office. To obtain the form, please call (707) 421-6265 or visit the Assessor/Recorder's office at 600 Texas Street, Suite 106, Fairfield.
